National High School Ethics Bowl

The winner of the final round will compete in the National High School Ethics Bowl, which will be held at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill on April 10-11, 2015.

Cases for April's national bowl will be released in late February 2015. Some of the national cases will be winning entries from an annual case competition, which provides an opportunity for high school students to submit cases for use in the national ethics bowl. For more information, see <http://nhseb.unc.edu/nhseb-2015/case-competition/>

University of Washington Center for Philosophy for Children is dedicated to introducing philosophy to K-12 students. The Center's "Philosophers in the Schools" program educates University of Washington students about ways to introduce philosophy in K-12 classrooms, and then sends them into Seattle schools to conduct philosophy sessions. Since 1996 the program has introduced philosophy to thousands of K-12 students. The Center also runs workshops for teachers and parents about ways to facilitate philosophy discussions with young people.
